Visit the White House 07, Fri 10:30 am

Take a virtual tour of the White House, sometimes called "The People's House", narrated by President Barack Obama and his wife Michelle. Learn about the White House's East and West Wings.

TED Talk Discussion & National Parks 19, Wed 12:15 pm

Marian De Angelo will introduce Ian Cole's engaging TED Talk, The Science of Vacation, and options for visiting America's national parks.

Community Learning Event: Art Journaling

27, Thur 2:00 pm

Our colleague Amanda Wilder will introduce a technique she uses in classes – using simple visual art techniques and writing, to invite people to talk about ideas, moods, and feelings.

Community Learning Event: Online Resource Tour 11, Tue 8:30 am

Jennifer Kagan will introduce several online resources recommended by our team for supporting language education.

Visit a Farm in Italy 21, Fri 10:30 am

One of our students, Elena Cavallari, will show us her family's farm. Experience a new kind of farm, learn about agriculture "industry 4.0," and hear about how farmers (and animals) managed the COVID-19 experience.

Local Trips in D.C., Maryland & Virginia 28, Fri 10:30 am

This outing invites you to talk about local trips you would recommend to others this summer. International travel is difficult, so we're eager to learn about your ideas for getaways in the U.S.

Friday Outing: Experiences in the U.S. 14, Fri 10:30 am

One of our students, Akiko Suzuki, will talk about trips she's done around the U.S. In the two years she's been here, she's visited 49 states!

Workshop: Adapt Your Professional Skills 26, Wed 10-11:00 am

Susan Kay will explore professional goals, networking, applying for jobs/volunteer work, and interviewing.

Parent Talk/First Steps in English Sep. 2, Wed 10:30 am

Educational workshop for parents with children between 0 and 5. We'll talk about parenting challenges and introduce a new class for 4-5 year olds, "First Steps in English!"

Back to School: Sharing Information About K-12 Schools

Fridays, Aug. 14, 28, & Sep. 11, 12:00 pm

Join small group conversations about U.S. K-12 schools, registration, and communicating with teachers. Learn how other parents are managing school issues. Tell your friends!

Information Session on an Online Class: The Science of Well-Being Sat, Aug. 29, 10:30 am

This class, featuring Yale University Professor Laurie Santos and delivered through an online platform called Coursera, has enrolled 2.8 million people!

Welcoming Week 2020 Sep. 12-20

English Now! and WCIE are excited to once again support Welcoming Week, a week each September when local communities celebrate hospitality to immigrants and refugees. Stay tuned for activities.

Please visit our website at <http://english-now.com/community-service> for information about these and other forthcoming community service initiatives. Information is available there in Chinese, French, German, Japanese, Korean, Portuguese, Spanish, and Thai, as we come together - even now - to weave community at a time of crisis. #WeavingCommunity
